*“Ar-Raum” in the Endings of words between Al-Qurra’
(scholars of modes of recitation) and scholars of grammar*

A comparative study

Dr. Ibrahim ibn Mohammad Al-Sultan

Research in some terminologies of the field of Qira’at is just a research in the field of linguistic; because the two fields have so many aspects in common, and for the fact that the scholars of Qira'at are in most cases the scholars of linguistic, some of them are even considered heads in the field of linguistic.

Books of the two fields are considered original reference points for each other in regards to terminologies and other aspects.

This research however, is a comparative study on the term; “Ar-Raum” in the endings of words between Al-Qurra’ (scholars of modes of recitation) and scholars of grammar, with the aim to provide reader with different views of the two groups, their valid and invalid aspects in using the term, In addition to shedding light upon their justifications and distinctions.

Sayings of Al-Imam Attalamanki, on Othmanic drawing Cases

Dr. Hemod ibn Mohammad Radman

The scholars were interested in the Othman copy of the Holy Quran, describing the method of its writing accurately, and transferring it honestly. Some of them tried to direct what contradicted the rules of writing. Among those scholars was the Imam who named Attalamanki, who has a clear contribution on the Othmani drawing, through his writings and his words, which were transmitted by those who came after him, and since his books are missing and found Al-Labib in (Addora Al-Saqliah in explaining the lines of Aqeelah) has been quoted some sayings, including what is in the description of the phenomena of drawing, and another including what is in the guidance of these phenomena.

determined to collect these sayings, and to discuss, highlighting the efforts of this Imam in this field, so this research, entitled (Imam Attalamanki's statements in the issues of Ottoman drawing, presentation and discussion). I mentioned in the preface a brief translation of Imam Attalamanki , then I collected his sayings in the phenomena of Ottoman drawing in the first part, and devoted the second part for his sayings in directing these phenomena, and made the third part to mention his general statements in the Othmani drawing, and studying these sayings and discussing them, and to indicating their position among the scholars of drawing,, And then concluded with the conclusion of this research and highlighted its results.

The controversial evidence to the pause of the Imam Al-HABTI in

Sheikh Mohammed Ibn Abdessalam al-Fassi (1214 H)

through his book : (Al-Aqrat and Al-Shnouf)

Abd-Alkareem ibn Al-Habib Hariri

The purpose of this research is: (The controversial evidence to the pause of the Imam Al-HABTI in Sheikh Mohammed Ibn Abdessalam al-Fassi (T: 1214 H) through his book : (Al-Aqrat and Al-Shnouf), to know the beginning and the pause) to reveal the analytical method that explained the conclusion of conservation Sheikh Mohammed Ibn Abdessalam al-Fassi In his victory for the work of the Al-HABTI in the Waqf, which the Moroccans committed to a period of time, where he sees that his stance is based on the purposes of explanation on the part of the language and insulting the interpretation and others, which increases the meaning of wealth and diversity in a non-contiguous and non-contradictory. The reason behind Mohammed Ibn Abdessalam leading and disguised work was the scholars 'criticism of Al-HABTI WAQF and when others have agreed that it has a weak out put and contradictory to Sunnah, Al-Fassi has supported Al-HABTI' WAQF by extracting sound justifications leaving no room for proving that Al-HABTI is an outstanding quranic scholar. The contract of this research was organized in the introduction and two topics:

- The introduction and the preface for the definition of the subject, the author, the author - the manuscript - and the presentation of its subjects.

- The first topic: I devoted to talk about the views of scientists in the WAQF of the Imam Al-HABTI, and presented the view of Muhammad Ibn Abdessalam al-Fassi in it through his writings.

- The second topic was devoted to extract the explanatory aspects developed by Muhammad Ibn Abdessalam from restricting the WAQF of the hypothetical through the extrapolation and tracing in the book mentioned.

- followed by a conclusion.

Abstaining of Apostles peace be upon them from the money of their people in the light of the Holy Quran

Dr. Hamza ibn Abdullah Al-shwahna

This research is entitled abstaining of apostles peace be upon them from the money of their people in the light of the Holy Quran, the purpose of the research was to shed light on the guidance of the apostles, peace be upon them, to prevent them from seeking the wages of their people in return for informing them of the invitation through the verses of the Holy Quran according to the methodology of objective interpretation, the development of the most educational aspects of the method of the Apostles peace be upon them to refrain from taking pay for the invitation, to achieve this goal, the researcher took the inductive and deductive approach, so that the Koranic verses that dealt with the subject of the apostles' peace be upon them asked about the wages of their people in return for informing them, and then devising the most important educational values learned from those verses that include the suppression of the apostles peace be upon them in the hands of their people, the results of the study concluded that the waiver of the funds of the invitees is one of the most important features of the Islamic call, he did not all apostles, where they asserted publicly that they do not request to be informed of the letter by any person, whether moral or material, they seek reward from God, but they were making their own money for the benefit of the call, the study recommended directing scientific research to expand the talk in the areas of abstinence in the Holy Quran and Sunnah, there is no doubt that the apostles peace be upon them are the masters of chastity.

Care of Women in the Holy Quran and its Reciting

Dr. Salem ibn Ghurm Allah Al-Zahrani

When God created His slaves, he made them a male and female couple, and made the commissioning of the rituals of his religion comprehensive for them, each with its own Duties and specialization with characteristics of the other, but they share many of the legitimate Duties.

And it is common to receive and inform the science, and therefore has witnessed Islamic history through the ages a prominent participation of women in the scientific movement.

One of the priorities of what is included in that science in the book of God Almighty ,reading and reciting. And in this research dealt with the topic (The Care of Women in the Holy Quran and its Reciting) through three topics : The first is the general assignment of men and women, and secondly: the care of women with science in general, and the third: the care of women in the Holy Quran , receive it and read it.

The most important results were: - All rights and duties of men and women alike, including Learning and education. - And the care of many great women with science and collect it and teach people in different sciences. - The contribution of women to the industry and construction of many scholars in various arts. - The multiple manifestations of the care of women in the Holy Quran, conservation, education, reading, research and adaptation.

The description Rhetoric by source in the Holy Quran

Dr. Mohammad ibn Rashid Al-Subhi

Some of the issues of grammar are still thought to be their own without any attempt to be incorporated into the rhetoric entity. despite their rhetorical moments. and this study is an attempt by the researcher to shed light on this technique and to show its eloquence in our language by writing interpretations. although there are brief phrases , It is a subject that has not been taken care of by the conceptual rhetoric.

The researcher defined the preface in the search terms, then addressed this method in the grammar lesson, then he stopped in the rhetorical lesson, and mentioned the efforts of the two people to refer to it and show its value, and then stated that this method in the Qur'an Its methods, signed as a news for the beginner, and occurred immediately, and signed a label, and signed an effect, and the occurrence of an addition, then the conclusion of the research by mentioning the most important findings, and he walked in his approach to the analytical inductive approach. I found out all of this method in the Qur'an, and categorized it according to its partial topics, and analyzed From the derivative to the source.

Urjuza which included types of Makki and Madani in Holy Quran

Dr.prof. Mohammad ibn Ibrahim Al-Mashhadani

This paper includes a study, a codicological examination and an explanation of an important Urjuza (a type of Arabic poetry written in Rajaz metre) dealing with a significant science of Ulum al-Quran (sciences of the Quran) which is the science of Makki and Madani. This poem has been forgotten in the shelves of the manuscripts library for many centuries; therefore it is only known for few researchers. This manuscript is titled: "Al-Urjuza Al-Mutadhamina Ma'rifat Al-Makki Wa Al-Madani from Quran" by Sheikh Abi Abdillah Badr Al-Din Mohamed Al- Tathafi.

In this poem, the scholar has collected the legal rulings of the Quranic Surah in terms of being Makki or Madani. He overtly referred to (42) ayahs and decided whether they are Makki or Madani whereas he covertly referred to (72) other ayahs without any ambiguity that might occur to the reader in knowing the types of the surahs.

No doubt that publishing the manuscript of this poem after codifying and explaining it would have a good impact on the scholars working in this field since its publishing and spread will support the specialized references particularly due to its oldness and uniqueness among the sciences of the Quran.

This study includes an introduction, two chapters and a conclusion: Chapter one is about the study which consists of two sections: section one deals with the poet in nine points and section two talks about the Urjuzah in nine points also. Chapter two presents the text of the Urjuzah which is titled: "Al-Urjuza Al-Mutadhamina Ma'rifat Al-Makki Wa Al-Madani Min Suwar Al-Quran" with its codification and explanation. The conclusion contains the most important findings of the study.

Peace and blessings be upon our master and our prophet Muhammad the trustworthy, his family, his companions, and their followers until the Day of Judgment.
